representatives of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education will visit this campus from Feb. 24 to Mar. 1.

Miller Cited 'Outstanding' National Book

Eleanor Rae Miller, economics instructor at NWSM, has been selected as the "outstanding young woman of America."

Miss Eleanor Miller

Miller's picture and a biographical sketch will appear in the 1966 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America," an annual publication sponsored by leaders of women's organizations in the United States.

The selection, which is made by a board of advisory editors, is based on nominations from women's organizations. The nominees are their contribution or achievements in community, religious, business, professional, or political activities.

Early 6,000 outstanding young women between the ages of 18 and 36 are included in the compilation. Local women's organizations throughout the year submit nominations for the book, and each year a different number of young women is included.

Miller received her B.S. in education and her M.Ed. from the University of Missouri. She is a member of Lambda Theta and Phi Kappa Omicron fraternities. Miller formerly served as an economics teacher in Groves, Mo. Presently she is an instructor in the Economics Department and director of the Home Management House.

Committee to Hold Applicant Interviews

Interviews will be held from 4-7 p. m. today as part of the screening process of selecting a Community Ambassador from Northwest Missouri State College.

At their last meeting the Community Ambassador committee approved 10 candidates for today's interviews, which will be held in the Conference Room of the J. W. Jones program of teacher education and approve the master of science in education degree.

The evaluators are Dean Elmer J. Clark, College of Education, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale; Dr. Merrill C. Beyerl, vice president for student affairs and dean of students, Ball State University, Muncie, Ind.

Dr. Dempsey E. Reid, chairman, Department of Industrial Arts, Western Illinois University, Macomb; Dr. John Q. Reed, chairman, Department of English, Kansas State College, Pittsburg; Dr. Neal S. Gomon, president, Peru Nebraska State College; Dr. Francis B. Belshe, associate dean of faculty, Illinois State University, Normal.

Dr. Mary Tom Berry, associate professor of education, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro; Dr. J. J. Weigand, director, Division of Field Services, and professor of music, Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia; Paul Greene, director of teacher education and certification, State Department of Education, Jefferson City; and G. M. Coleman, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction, Board of Education, St. Joseph.

The college was last visited by an NCATE committee in the summer of 1958 when its undergraduate program of teacher education and graduate program were first accredited.

Since 1958 the college has phased out its graduate program and entered a cooperative arrangement with the University of Missouri for the MEd degree.

Television Group To Hold Tryouts For College Talent

An hour-long, on-location television show is being produced by Corinthian Special Productions for an all-state television broadcast this spring under the sponsorship of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

This will be an entertainment program, showcasing campus talent: vocalists, musicians, groups, dancers, variety acts.

Students at NWSM are invited to participate in the auditions, which will be held at 3:30 p. m., Wednesday at the Horace Mann Auditorium.

Students are asked to provide their own accompaniment at the audition. A public address system with a turntable will be available for dancers or others who need a record player. Only one number will be presented by each contestant.

Selected performers will be paid a professional fee. In addition to numbers by singers, dancers, and musicians, the program sponsors are also looking for specialty acts — such as monologists, comics, or magicians. Any student interested may contact Jack Gray Jr. in the Field Service Office.

on campus which reviewed the total undergraduate program, including teacher education, and studied the proposed graduate program scheduled to begin with the summer session of 1967.

In preparation for the NCATE visit, a faculty committee met several times prior to the opening of the fall semester. The studies by the faculty were completed in December and resulted in the publication of the "Self-Survey in Professional Education" which was submitted to NCATE headquarters. This self study will be the guide for the visitation panel.

The evaluation committee will be talking with faculty organizations and individuals as well as with student groups and individuals. The exact schedule for these contacts will be set up when the committee arrives.

'Mahlzeit...'

Thus Students Greet Students, Instructor As They Meet for Daily Talk in German

Only German Words in Vogue

By Roger Martin
"Mahlzeit!" Welcome! Pull up a chair; and how are you today? No, we weren't talking about anything in particular.

"Mahlzeit" for short is a greeting used by Germans when they sit down to eat. A translation of this greeting would approximate the English, "A blessed mealtime to you." It is the German expression, however, that this reporter heard one day as he wandered through the Union.

Further inquiry led to the revelation that German students on our campus are meeting five days a week from noon until one in the Union cafeteria at a "Stammtisch." "Stammtisch" means "customary table." Here students gather to speak and listen to German.

This somewhat unique institution is presided over by one Robert A. Govier, assistant professor of German. Mr. Govier claims that the best way to learn to speak a second language is to be transported bodily to the country in which the language is spoken. Failing this, however, one can create an environment within which speaking the second language becomes mandatory. This is the aim of "Stammtisch."

While sitting around the table, students are encouraged to speak only German. "One does not learn a second language in the classroom," contends Mr. Govier. "He (the student) does not converse until he has the opportunity to converse."

The conversation witnessed by this reporter was, at times, slow and tedious, but apparently everyone was enjoying his attempt.

Mr. Govier's experiment seems to be working. Last semester's "Stammtisch" had an average attendance of about four students per meeting. Things have changed since then. There were 12 in attendance recently when this reporter joined the group.

All of those present seemed motivated by a genuine desire to acquire oral facility in German. Beginning students, quite naturally, have a more limited vocabulary, and therefore, more trouble expressing themselves than do the advanced students. As one beginner said, "All right, let's see what I can say today," when he pulled out his German book:

"You've finished your lunch? 'Mahlzeit!' If you are interested in speaking German, we'll see you at the 'Stammtisch.'"

The Northwest Missouri State College Symphonic Band, under the direction of Ward Rounds, will present its first concert at 8 p. m. tonight in the Charles Johnson Theatre of the Olive DeLuce Fine Arts Building.

The 60-piece, specially selected group will present its concert before going on tour to various schools in Missouri and Kansas Monday.

The Symphonic Band's repertoire includes "Carnival" from La Fiesta Mexicana by H. Owen Reed; Overture for Band by Joshua Missal; A Solemn Music by Virgil Thomson; Pantomime by Donald Lutz and Italian Polka by Sergei Rachmaninoff. It also includes three marches: Thunder and Blazes by Julius Fucik; Chicago Tribune by W. P. Chambers and Mustang by Eric Osterling.

An overture for band by Burton Lane from the musical On a Clear Day You Can See Forever will also be included. It features the selections "On the S. S. Bernard Cohn," "On a Clear Day," "She Wasn't You," "Melinda," "What Did I Have That I Don't Have," and "Come Back to Me."

For the first time in NWMSC history, the college band has been divided into two bands: the Symphonic Band and the Varsity Band. A critical audition is required for admission into the Symphonic Band, and members of this band are subject to challenge by members of the Varsity Band at any time.

The public is invited to hear the Symphonic Band's first performance, free of admission.

Sororities Accept Pledges At Climax of Rush Week

The names of 30 new pledges in the four social sororities at Northwest Missouri State College have been released from the office of Miss Karen Licklider, dean of women.

Pledges for Alpha Sigma Alpha are Mary Jo Alden, Red Oak; Sharon Lee Baier, Atlantic; Carole L. Brown, Hamburg; Jennifer M. Heer, Independence; Claudia Rae Hill, Clio, Iowa; Jackie S. Kampmann, Ridgeway; Marilee J. Neuberger, Renwick, Iowa; Carol A. Nichols, Bethany; Ronda Ridnour, Perry, Iowa; and Janet S. Wilson, Lathrop.

Delta Zeta pledges are Rita Bissell, Corning; Margaret Ann Hall, Shenandoah; Kathy S. Hatfield, St. Joseph; Arlene Ostrander, Maryville; A. Suzette Runnels, Gallatin; Nancy Scheer, Maryville; Martha Waits, Blue Springs; Vee Dochia White, Westland, Mich.

Phi Mu Fraternity pledged Vicki Baker, Maryville; Ruth Gray, Kathleen Wharton, Sarah Ann Baum, St. Joseph; Kathleen Black, Independence; Randi George, Princeton; Cynthia Kreek, Oregon; Kathie Maschke, Des Moines; Cathy Pierce, Kansas City; Melody Price, Cameron; and Connie Seuell, Holt;

New pledges for Sigma Sigma are Beverly Bowen, St. Joseph; Sharon Miller, East Greenville, Pa., and Elaine Thompson, Kansas City.

AP0 Members Install Officers

Installation of spring officers and the announcement of a new sponsor highlighted a recent Alpha Phi Omega meeting.

New officers inducted into the Beta Upsilon chapter include Dave Newstadt, president; Gary McIntyre, first vice president; Dick Bartlow, second vice president and pledge trainer; Larry Geib, recording corresponding secretary; Phil Fine, alumni secretary; and Mike Gann, sergeant at arms.

Bruce Wake, director of the men's residence halls, was announced as the new sponsor.

College Band to Perform At Six Area Schools

Benton High School in Joseph will be the first school to hear the Symphonic Band Monday as members begin their three-day tour.

After eating lunch in Joseph, the band will travel to Atchison, Kan., for the afternoon performance at Benton High School. Following the concert, the band will travel to St. Joseph for dinner and will remain overnight at the Robidoux Hotel.

The next day will begin for the 60 band members as they travel to Leavenworth, Kan., for a morning concert at the Leavenworth High School. The afternoon concert will be in Leavenworth, and the band members will probably be more glad to arrive at the Leavenworth Hotel where they will spend the night.

The third morning will be even earlier for the band as they travel to Brainerd, Minn., for a concert Wednesday. The concert will be an afternoon program at Park Hill School, Parkville.

The band will return to St. Joseph Wednesday afternoon after fulfilling three goals: present their music well, enjoy themselves, and to be representatives of Northwest Missouri State College.

Alpha Phi Omega to Sponsor Annual Ugly Man Contest

Sponsored by the Beta Upsilon Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the annual Ugly Man Contest will be held Apr. 5, 6, and 7.

A carnival and variety show will be held from 7 to 11 p. m. the last day in Lamkin Gymnasium to raise money for the student loan fund and to arouse enthusiasm of Northwest Missouri State College students.

Ugly Man Contest

The Ugly Man Contest will consist of a division for student candidates and another for faculty candidates. Each nominee must be backed by only one recognized campus organization.

One organization can sponsor only one candidate. The name of each candidate plus the name of the sponsoring organization must be registered with Dick Partlow, UMOG chairman, no later than three weeks before the opening of the contest.

APO will be responsible for arranging polling places and ballot boxes for the contest. To vote, a fan shall place 10 cents in the ballot box of his favorite candidate. The one in each division polling the greatest number of votes shall be declared the winner of that division. All money collected shall be donated to the Student Loan Fund.

Carnival, Booths

Carnival arrangements and proceedings will also be regulated by APO. Any recognized campus organization may apply for a permit to erect a booth at the carnival. Application for a booth must include the name of the sponsoring organization, the theme or idea for the booth, the name of the candidate supported by that booth, and the name of the person responsible for the booth of the sponsoring organization. The application must be submitted to the chairman of the Ugly Man contest three weeks prior to the contest.

All booths will be constructed at the expense of the organization sponsoring them and no profit will be realized by them. Booths shall be torn down by 11 a. m. on the day following the carnival. If the winning organization does not obey this rule, it will have to forfeit its awards to the first runner-up adhering to the stipulation.

Any member or group from the student body or faculty may audition for the variety show held at the carnival. All acts must audition before a panel selected by Alpha Phi Omega at the time designated by the chairman of the carnival committee of APO. The right is held by APO to eliminate any acts it deems necessary to omit.

Variety Show Voting

Variety show tryouts will be announced at a later date. All tickets, the medium of exchange, collected by each booth shall be considered votes for the candidate sponsored by that booth.

Variety show tryouts will be announced at a later date.

All tickets, the medium of exchange, collected by each booth shall be considered votes for the candidate sponsored by that booth.

Placement Test Dates

Announced in Missouri

Dates for the administering of college placement tests for Missouri high school seniors have been announced.

The tests will be administered at Northwest Missouri State College Mar. 11, Apr. 1, 15, 29, and July 15. Arrangements for taking the tests should be made through the respective high school counselors.

Students who wish to enroll in any of the 29 higher education institutions in Missouri should make arrangements to take the tests at one of the 42 state testing sites. In this area the tests will also be administered at Trenton Junior College and Missouri Western Junior College, St. Joseph.

Sorority Inducts Initiates

Seven girls were initiated into the Delta Zeta sorority on Jan. 15. The initiates include Rose Ann Butcher, Maryville; Connie Davis, Fairfax; Janice Wilkes, Kansas City; Janice Ball and Rose Mary Cole, Indianola, Iowa; Roberta Dague, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Kathy Griffin, Adair, Iowa.

Ed Wilson, president of the club, is student teaching this semester. Donald M. Foerlich is the club adviser.

More than 500 individuals and groups have already contributed to the project, with nearly one-half of the $100,000 goal already raised. Additional contributions, however, will be necessary if the Memorial Tower is to be completed by May, 1968, as was originally planned.

JoAnn Voyce Elected To Head Book Club

Book Club members selected JoAnn Voyce as president; Peggy Wright, vice president; Janet Nielsen, secretary, and Linda Gibson, treasurer at their monthly meeting.

Giving a delightful and thoroughly enjoyable review of Richard Chrichton's The Secret of Santa Vittoria, Miss Mary Jackson, assistant professor of Spanish, commented, "I understand why it is so popular: It's a joy to read. There is a marvelous blending of comedy, pathos, symbolism, and allegory."

Phi Mu Girls Receive Steak, Soup Dinners

Members of the Phi Mu Fraternity held their annual Soup and Steak Dinner at Armstrong's Restaurant recently.

Girls who obtained a 3.5 grade average or above were entitled to steak dinners. Chicken baskets were served to those with a 3.0 to 3.5; glorified hamburgers for those with 2.5 to 3.0; hamburgers for those with 2.0 to 2.5. Girls who received less than a 2.0 were treated to soup.

Grapplers Defeat 2 More

Bearcats to Host Omaha, Lamoni

Two extremes in scores were produced last week by Northwest Missouri State wrestlers as they narrowly escaped the University of Nebraska, 16-14, and then breezed past Missouri Valley, 28-3.

Al Borkowski's 2-0 victory against the Nebraska Cornhuskers was the "must" match in the former meet. As Borkowski, 191-pounder, walked to the mat, an encouraging crowd roared to incite what Coach Jerry Landwer called "the winning margin." "The home crowd's cheering was a great incentive for Bork," the mentor remarked.

In previous matches, Corky Crandall, 123, lost 4-6; Stan Zeamer, 137, drew 2-2; Paul Stehman, 137, won 13-3; Bill Rex, 145, lost 0-3; Ron James, 152, won 8-0; Rich Downing, 160, won 3-0; Tom Paulsen, 167, won 2-1; Dale Palmer, 177, was pinned, and Terry Hartley won 6-0 in an exhibition match. Paulsen had just three seconds, enough to gain the one point of riding time which provided the victory.

The 'Cats outscored Missouri Valley in match points 61-14 and recorded two falls. Paulsen's match was again decided by a matter of seconds, but this time he was on the short end of the score. Paulsen, taken down with one second remaining, lost 6-5.

Wrestlers winning the remaining matches were Crandall, 11-0; Hartley, a 5:19 pin; Zeamer, 6-0; Rex, 9-0; James, a 1:21 pin; Downing, 5-3; and Borkowski, 5-2. Gary Grimes posted a 6-0 win in an exhibition match.

Captain James smashed the season point record which he established during his sophomore year, when he earned 84 points. James now has 87 points with several chances to improve his record.

NWMSU has not lost a dual meet at home since the University of Omaha defeated the Bearcats 16-14 on Dec. 15, 1962. Now the Omaha Indians are strong enough to break that

Bearcat Swimmers Rank 2nd In MIAA Conference Meet

NWMSU splashed to a second place team showing in the MIAA Conference Swim Meet Feb. 16 and 17 in Warrensburg.

Coach Lewis Dyche's charges took six of 15 first places, five second places, and the meets' best swimmer title. Warrensburg was first in team scoring with 77 points, followed by Maryville, with 61, Cape Girardeau, 29, and Springfield, 20.

Bearcats placing first and second:

1650-yd. freestyle, John Clover, 1st, 20:11.2, New conf. rec.
100-yd. backstroke, Mark Thomas, 2nd,
200-yd. freestyle, John Clover, 1st, 1:59.2 New conf. rec.

400-yd. freestyle relay, Pierce, Hansen, 3:44.2, Connor and Clover, 1st. New school and conf. rec.

The best swimmer meet award went to John Clover, who set conference records in the 1,650-yd. freestyle, 200-yd. freestyle, and 100-yd. freestyle. Clover also won the winning 400-yd. style relay team.

John Clover, Bearcat swimmer, displays the best swimmer's plaque, which he received at the annual league meet in Warrensburg.

Bearcats Outplay Washburn Ichabods On Floor, Lose Finale at Foul Line

The 'Cats wound up their basketball season last Friday with a 60-56 loss to the Washburn University Ichabods.

The 'Cats outplayed the Ichabods in both shooting and rebounding, but free-throws were their downfall. Washburn received 36 foul shots during the game, hitting 24 of them.

The Bearcats ended their season with a 7-16 record. Coach Dick Buckridge stated that, although this season's record was not impressive, he hoped that the experience gained by the new players would be reflected in the '67-'68 basketball season. The 'Cats will lose Mike Simon and Bob Tonies this year, but returning players such as Don Sears, Bob Nelson, Ralph Gifford, and Gary Howren should provide a fine nucleus around which to build a strong team for the coming seasons. Sears and Simon were the leading scorers this season, and Simon was leading rebounder.

Referring to next year's season, Coach Buckridge said, "Coach Iglehart and I have been scouting players in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa tournaments, and hope to gain some new talent although a long process screening will be necessary."

Richey to Emphasize Hitting Bearcat Baseball Schedule

"We have to find some hits if we are going to do the job," commented Burton Richey, head baseball coach, as he discussed his team's prospects.

This is a good indication of what Coach Richey and his assistant, Bob Iglehart, will be looking for at the onset of the 1967 baseball season, which starts officially at Tuesday's practice.

There are 50 players who have shown interest in playing for the Bearcats this season. The squad will go through early conditioning and after tryouts will be cut down to a total of 26 for the 27 varsity games and four junior varsity games which are presently scheduled.

"Last year when we got men on the bases we couldn't bring them around, so this year we will work hard on our team hitting," stated Coach Richey, emphasizing the phase of the game that would be worked on the hardest.

Last year's squad finished with nine wins and 18 losses. Many of the losses were by one or two runs; hence, Coach Richey is searching for good hitters.

Harriers Open Indoor Season, Lack Depth

After being absent from the track scene for a year of doctoral study, Coach Earl Baker returns to Maryville to work with a small nucleus of competitors.

Coach Baker previews the season with a not-so-optimistic outlook. "We are lacking depth in field, distance, and hurdle events," the mentor has observed.

Most of the team's experienced harriers will be competing in the short distance events. Top sprint man is co-captain Pete Hager. He set the school 100-yard dash mark last year with a :9.6 time and teamed with Normal Howlett, Pete Meindertsma, and co-captain Phil Frahm to establish a new NWMSC mile relay mark in 3:16.7. Hager also captured the 60-yard and quarter mile events in the conference indoor meet last spring.

Frahm is also a top quarter miler and Howlett competes in the broad jump and on the 440-yard relay team. Another top sprint man is letterman John Banning, who also runs a leg in the 440-yard relay. In the half mile, top thin-clads are Meindertsma and Kent Kavanaugh, holder of the school record at 1:57.

Several cross-country men will compete in the distance events. They are Roger Stucki, Danny Reed, Lynnard Phipps, Rick Kemp, Tom Sterrett, and Lewis Garrett.

Lettermen Gary Hansen returns as the top discus thrower. Last year he broke the school mark with a 145-foot heave. Others experienced in field events are Perry Courtney, high jump, and Mitch Hanna, javelin.

Several freshman will get a chance to prove their ability in the field events. Jim McGhee has pole vaulted 14' 10", Stan Carlson has high jumped 6' 5", and Tom Dahlhauser and Tony Parker have done well in previous shot put competition.

Coach Baker lists Southeast and Northeast Missouri as the strongest teams in the upcoming Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association Indoor Meet.

All of the indoor dual meets will be on the Bearcat track. The outdoor schedule has not been completed. On the indoor schedule are:

- Feb. 25 Graceland
- Mar. 4 William Jewell
- 11 Peru State
- 18 Indoor MIAA Meet at Columbia

Cheerleaders Receive Honors

Cheerleaders who received awards at the final basketball game of the season are, Front Row: Gloria Sherman, Elaine Thompson, Mary Lou Reedquist, and Mary Daniel; Second Row: Elaine Sherman, Cheri Jordan, Kathy Seabaugh, H. R. Dieterich, MIAA representative who presented the awards; Miss Bonnie Magill, sponsor; Dottie Wilson, and Linda Snell.

School Rewards Spirit Dynamos

Nine NWMSC coeds were presented cheerleading awards at the halftime of last week's final basketball game for the Bearcats.

Herb Dieterich, NWMSC representative to the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association, made the presentation.

Varsity cheerleaders receiving their first award were Cheri Jordan, sophomore, Chillicothe, and Kathryn Seabaugh, sophomore, Savannah.

First year letters went to the following freshman cheerleaders: Mary Daniel, Chillicothe; Mary Lou Reedquist, Des Moines; Gloria Sherman, Maryville, and Elaine Thompson, North Kansas City.

Second year varsity cheerleading awards were given to Linda Snell, sophomore, North Kansas City, and Dottie Wilson, sophomore, Chillicothe.

Co-captains of the NWMSC cheerleaders who received awards were Elaine Sherman, Maryville, and Pat Noah Greer, Rock Port, who was presented honors in absentia. Miss Sherman and Mrs. Greer received their third and fourth year awards, respectively.

Gymnastic Group Observes Clinic

Four students, accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Bernard and Mrs. Janet Moss, instructors in the Department of Physical Education, went to Ft. Leavenworth, Kas., recently to observe a gymnastic clinic.

The clinic was conducted by Miss Omldal, a student at the University of Kansas. She is a member of the Norwegian Women Students' Sports Club that performed on campus here last year.

Students attending were Beth Blackwell, Bonnie Johnson, Carol Krokstrom, and Beverly Miller.

AKL Has Most Spirit

Gary McCullough holds the spirit trophy which was presented by Elaine Sherman to the Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity for its support to the Bearcat basketball team this season. McCullough is president of the AKL's.

THE STROLLER

Humanities quizzes are more fun when the instructor prints them on heart-shaped paper to celebrate the "holiday season."

One NWMSC knitter claims she has found the secret to control fidgeting: Do it in an organized way with thread.

Heavy Question: . . . How does one get an unabridged dictionary out of a classroom without detection? No briefcase is that big.

Daughters of Diana Initiate New Members

The Daughters of Diana initiated six new members in a formal ceremony Sunday evening at the Tau Kappa Epsilon House.

Girls who were initiated are Carol Duff, Kansas City; Kathy Johns, St. Joseph; Pam Jones, Lohrville, Iowa; Linda Martin, Maryville; Cheryl Linde, Harlan, Iowa; and Janice McRae, Des Moines.

The ceremony followed the semi-annual tapping which occurred last week.

Delta Sigma Phi Schedules Parties

Two major social events were slated on the Delta Sigma Phi social calendar for the month of February.

A touch of Las Vegas will be present at NWMSC as Delta Sigma Phi features its traditional Monte Carlo Night at 8 p. m. Saturday at the American Legion Hall.

At this semi-formal party, Delta Sigs and their guests will play roulette, black jack, and other table games with "Monte Carlo" money. This money will be used at the end of the evening when prizes are auctioned off to the top bidders.

The fraternity staged a "Liverpool Life Mod Party" Saturday night.

English fashions were in evidence at the Delta Sig house, with the women wearing miniskirts and the men attired in the latest English mod styles.

In a combined beatnik and mod atmosphere, part of the house was transformed into a discotheque. The lower floor of the house was decorated with an English pub effect.

From the depths of the den comes a thundering roar as a triumphant player raises his arm in victory. A Grand Kuchana!

A sport, popularly called "Cups," threatens fierce competition to more staid den pastimes. Participants spin a bilaterally sidelined paper cup in an effort to make it land in a vertical position.

The game provides "thrills and chills" for spectators and players alike.

And tomorrow . . . Spoons?

One distressed English instructor, after confusing his class and himself, finally gave up and confessed, "I've been opening my mouth all day to change feet."

No better off is one of the Carousel directors who, following practice on a scene which ends with the ladies sitting on the men's knees, told the cast to get back on their knees and then looked up to find one of the girls standing on her knees.

Marty Geyer Named Coed of the Month

Marty Geyer, Waumego, Kas., has been cited by Cardinal Key National Honor Society as coed of the month.

Miss Geyer was chosen on the basis of the many contributions she has made to campus life. Among her many activities, she is a counselor in Roberta Hall, has been serving as president of Daughters of Diana, a member of the committee on Religious Em-

Rabbi to Address Students During Religious Emphasis Week

Sister Mary Claudelle Mil-
University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Wis., and Rabbi
Lawrence H. Rubinstein, Omaha, Neb., will be featured speakers during Religious Emphasis Week, Mar. 5-9.

Sister Mary Claudelle, a native of Kansas City, received her B.S. in Home Economics
from St. Mary's College, Lawrence, Kan. She has an M.S. in textiles and clothing from the University of Wisconsin and is presently a candidate for a PhD in Home Economics Education at that university.

Sister Mary has taught in parochial schools in Oklahoma City, Laramie,
Wyo., and Helena, Mont.
The past five years she has been a student at the University of Wisconsin and has also done some lecturing in clothing, behavior and unrelated arts areas of home economics. She has also spoken to graduate students of non-Catholic religions, such as the Mennonites.

Her main interests are the development of the church and the pursuit of her studies of home economics. She is a Sister of Charity of Leavenworth, Kan., and a member of Delta Epsilon Sigma and the Eta Chapter of Omicron Nu.

Alpha Sigmas Initiate Members

Alpha Sigma Alpha recently held initiation for 15 new members, followed by their annual honors banquet.

New initiates of the sorority are Phyllis Abersold, Fillmore; Terry Bailey, Des Moines; Pam Beach, Maryville; Lorri Bird, Graham; Tammy Constant, Sheridan;
Deanna Deitchler, Mineola,
Iowa; Karla Hofer, Ferguson;
Jo Ann Madden, Maryville;
Janice McRae, Des Moines;
Donna Merritt, Rosendale; Linda Patterson, Savannah; Jean Ann Pease, Lamoni, Iowa; Hila
Rankin, Colo., Iowa; Betsy
Thompson, Cainsville; and Joyce Wake, St. Joseph.

At the honors banquet, Linda Schoen, Des Moines, received the award for the highest scholastic average. The award for the most improved scholastic average went to Marsha Mundt, St. Louis. Phyllis Bowman, Kansas City, and Miss Mundt were recognized for outstanding leadership as pledge trainers during the past semester.

Terry Bailey, Des Moines, was cited as the pledge with the highest scholastic average.
The "perfect pledge" award went to Karla Hofer, Fergusson. Mary Beth McKinney received the award for the best costume for fun night.

Special guests at the initiation and banquet were Mrs. Albert Kuchs, patroness of Alpha Sigma Alpha, and Miss Bonnie Magill and Mrs. John Mauzey, chapter advisers.

Dianna Brown, chapter president, presided at the initiation and banquet.

Rabbi Rubinstein is assistant rabbi at Temple Israel in Omaha, Neb. He received his BA degree from Columbia University, New York, in 1960 and was ordained at the Hebrew Union College, Jewish Institute of Religion, New York, in 1965 receiving his MHL degree.

The rabbi lectures on college campuses under the auspices of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, an organization which creates better understanding of Jews and Judaism through education.

BUILDING 199 Planners, Report

By Eugene Bales

"At an average cost of $39.
39 per square foot, our company is erecting at the site of Elm and Eighth 90,000 tons of concrete, which, until a name is suggested, will be Building Number 199.

"Twenty-five per cent of the offices will face on despair, where clothes flap on lines between buildings and the average hope costs 50 cents. Seventy-five per cent of the offices will face other offices whose workers wear suits whose average cost is $86.95, not to mention the park whose average blade of grass creates nostalgia for the farm way of life in 33 and one-third of the people who see it.

"Ninety-nine thousand tons of steel will skeletonize the structure, whose architect's average vision is 8.5 on a 10-point scale.

"If stretched from end to end, the electrical conduit used in the building would go approximately 1,533.3 miles depending on contraction or expansion due to the weather.

"The 10,651 and one-half people who will work in the building have a mean I. Q. of 110, a mean education of 13.5 years, and an average aspiration of 2.6 cars and 2.1 children.

"Twenty stories containing 2,100 windows will scrape enough sky to blot out the blue.

"An exact BTU figure is not available on the air-conditioning, but rest assured it will be cold enough to boost the sales picture of hot drinks by an appreciable net profit.

"We all look forward at the rate of 100 per cent to the day when the building will be completed."

Author Eugene Bales Finds Time for Daily Composing

Eugene Bales turns out another story to be sent to a prospective publisher.

Would "encouraging rejection slips" from The Atlantic entice you to continue writing short stories, poems, and satires?

They do just that for Eugene Bales, a NWMSC junior from College Springs, who has been writing for five years. Last year he won fourth prize in the Writer's Digest short story contest and received as a prize
all the novels in the New York Time's top five best seller list for 1966.

Bales has had 20 poems published in Opinion, a Chicago magazine. His satirical article

Cheri Jordan Elected President of Phi Mu

Cheri Jordan, Chillicothe, recently was elected president of the Phi Mu Fraternity for the coming year.

Other elected officers include Terry Stitt, Chicago, vice president; Cheryl Wold, Council Bluffs, secretary; Cheryl Stone, Barre, Vt., corresponding secretary; Janet Wyman, Maitland, treasurer; Connie Norris,
Des Moines, pledge trainer; Linda Gill, Anita, Iowa, social chairman and senior panhellenic representative; Vivi Walkup, Oregon, Mo., scholarship chairman; Karen Bush, Bedford, standard chairman and assistant treasurer; Dixie Eddleman, Excelsior Springs; fraternity information chairman, and Harriet Walden, Independence, membership chairman.

"Controversial Avoiding" was published in Grump, a New York City magazine edited by Roger Price. During the past three summers, he has attended the Kansas University Writers' Conference, where students attend lectures and receive professional criticism.

Bales said that he has tried to write for at least an hour every day for the past three years. He mentioned that he has received encouragement from The Atlantic, although he has not yet had anything published in that periodical.

About rejection slips, he commented, "They really don't bother me. I made up my mind at the beginning to learn to forget them and remember the acceptances."

Instructors Attend Mathematics Meet

George Barratt, Maurice Dahmus, Marvin Gutzmer, Dr.
Ronnie Moss, and Mrs. Phyllis Shanklin, members of the Northwest Missouri State College Mathematics Department, attended a meeting of the Missouri Council of Teachers of Mathematics held last week in Kansas City.

The sessions consisted of discussions concerning phases of elementary, junior high, and Senior high school mathematics programs. Included were topics on computer counting and the characteristics that make up a good school mathematics program.

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL STUDENTS

What is man? Exactly what is he doing here? What is living? What is death? What is beyond, behind all this, and what does it have to do with you?

So you wake up in the morning and reach a sleepy hand to shut off the alarm. You are a student and you have classes to attend, meals to eat, friends to see, maybe a few activities . . . you probably date, and you are concerned about what's happening with people. But one day it hits you like the shock of your 6 a. m. alarm. Is this all there is to it? You sometimes go to church, or else you staunchly avoid it because you are an atheist or agnostic . . . but somehow the lines of questionless answers converge upon you and this no longer concerns religion or college: It just concerns you?

Go ahead and shut off the alarm and go back to sleep . . . if you really want to do that. Or wake up and face these questions and face yourself in the deepest and most private sense. It's your choice. Aren't you convinced that there are people who never ever HEAR an alarm? . . . and you can't help wondering exactly what living without questions means. Wouldn't you sometimes like to know "what's happening?"

This is your challenge, your own private contact with the best and the worst in yourself, and if you never get another thing out of college, you should accept this challenge to think. You don't have to think about Vietnam . . . atomic warfare . . . birth control . . . psychedelics communism . . . you don't even have to know they exist if you don't want to. You can also sleep through the next class. Does it matter at all to you? Exactly . . . what are you doing here?

Sorority Sends Gifts to Men in Service

Checking the supplies in the third box to be sent to servicemen in Viet Nam by members of Gamma Sigma Sigma service sorority are Sgt. Jimmie Cantrell, local Air Force recruiter and adviser for the project, Joyce McQuerrey, and Louise Burnett, chairman of the committee.

Items to be sent, which are donated by members of other organizations, include stationery, playing cards, candy, gum, canned fruit, paperback books, and soap. Two boxes have been sent to Marines and one to the Army men.

Miss Burnett reports that more boxes will be sent later in the spring and that many women on campus are presently writing to service men in Viet Nam and Korea.

Union Board Plans Surprise

What are your plans Saturday night? Are you willing to gamble with your time? Then unpack your suitcases and decide to spend the weekend at school. Why not attend "Surprise Night" scheduled for this weekend?

The Union Program Council is sponsoring a function starting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Blue Room in the Union. The special unrevealed event will continue until 9 p. m. with a den dance following, Ed Lambright, chairman reported.

The night should prove both entertaining and worthwhile if enough students show an enthusiastic response.

POEM

He may be just a feeling or merely a state of mind,
But He is always there
And has not died
Except in dead souls.
He is there for those with open minds,
So do not deny Him until you know what you're denying.
Do not fall at His feet for He has no feet.
Do not use Him as a crutch of insecurity,
But respect and adore Him as only you can
And observe from within if only you can
For he has everything to offer
So make it worth your while
For strength, grace, and purpose.

—Grant Rickert

WHAT IS THE COLOR OF LAUGHTER?

A child laughs—

Happy sounds of heartfelt mirth
Are flecked with gold like spring-green earth.
The world is clear to him, and bright;
His laughter sheds a warm, soft light.

A young girl smiles—

Quicksilver laughter, void of fears,
But in a moment may come tears.
She's just begun with grown-up lies;
They're not yet mirrored in her eyes.

Another sound—

A cooler laugh, in shades of blue,
Is more adult, and much less true.
When days grow short and life is real,
Is there less happiness to feel?

Then there is the joy of age, which warms the heart—

Happy sounds of heartfelt mirth
Are flecked with gold like spring-green earth.
The old can see that, through the years,
Laughter's the same as the color of tears.

—Sandy Fry, '66

Time for Metamorphosis

Winter's cutting, piercing wind gradually changes to a crisp, whiplashing March gust. The snow-blemished landscape slowly dissolves into eager patches of green with speckles of red, yellow, blue, and purple. A verdant spring conceived in late summer and carried through a hard winter is ready to be delivered.

During this Lenten season, this glorious time of rebirth, it seems most appropriate to look back on the past year and re-evaluate our lives. Throughout the course of this period of reflection and meditation, let us emphasize the need to strive for sounder relations with our fellow man. Let us be cognizant of the fact that just as there are two sides to every coin, there are two sides to every issue. Let us search for the good in everybody rather than eagerly pointing to the bad. Let us strengthen our tolerance and reinforce our patience toward others.

Perhaps with earnest thought over the mistakes of the past year, we might have better reason to anticipate a more successful future.

—Gary Kabrick

Magazine Sponsors Student Poetry Contest

College Arts magazine is sponsoring a $2,000 poetry contest open to all poets.

The first four grand prize winners will have their own books of poetry edited and published by the JTC Publishing Company.

For details, write: Poetry Contest, Box 314, West Sacramento, California 95691.

From the Registrar . . .

The final date for the dropping of a class is Tuesday. No student may drop a class after this date. Those who do not follow the prescribed procedure in dropping a course will receive a grade of "F" for the course.

Students are reminded that advisement sheets are the property of the Registrar's Office of NWMS. Any student who has his advisement sheet should return it immediately to the office.

MSC Students Collect Glasses For Handicapped

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Swartz, two Northwest Missouri State College students, are regional chairmen of Project Sight, a drive initiated in an attempt to collect discarded eyeglasses and frames for re-distribution overseas.

The donations will be shipped from the headquarters at Columbia to New Eyes for the Needy in Short Hills, New Jersey. After being graded and classified, they will be sent to the visually handicapped poor.

"The useless old glasses in your drawer may mean new sight for those less fortunate," Mr. Swartz pointed out.

Three hundred pairs of glasses have been collected to date. Any campus donations may be left at the Missouri office in Colden Hall.
